

Mission Statement

The Paul Creek Language Association

The Paul Creek Language Association is a non-profit British Columbia society formed with the express purpose of promoting the use, preservation and revitalization of the Okanagan language in the communities of the Lower Similkameen Valley. The Association will act to be a positive partner of families, communities, organizations and individuals who wish to bring the Okanagan language into their daily lives.